FORGERY AND PIRACY

PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles.

The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.

Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered in so artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.

We have taken LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY

The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—

Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles

See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for the name and address on top and signature on side of capsule, without none are genuine.

JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B's name on labels.

FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B's name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.

Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout

BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.

PIG BRAND STOUT

None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Sr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.

Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale

Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.

Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s

Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.

Rimmel's Brown Windsor Soap

Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.

Lea and Perrins Sauce

The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLESALE AGENTS.

Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch

None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULL'S HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULL'S HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.

Angostura Bitters

The market is INUNDATED with imitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Epps's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate

Every packet of the legitimate article bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Eugene Clicquot's Champagne

Each bottle of this renowned brand bears the registered trade label of the proprietor and our SIGNATURE LABEL AS SOLE AGENTS.

Old Tom Gin

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S celebrated cordial bears their signature label and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Invalid Port

GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.

Fine Pale Sherry

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an agreeable light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.

Lorne Whisky

Has an enviable reputation all over the world: every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Red Heart Rum

Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded HENRY WHITE & Co. and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS also the Red Heart label.

Real Hollands Pig Brand

Imported by us and guaranteed of superior quality. Each bottle bears our guarantee RED AND WHITE label.

Keiller's Lozenges, Drops and Confectionery

So justly appreciated here, bear on every tin, packet, bottle, &c our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Borwick's Baking Powder

Every packet or drum bears our SPECIAL LABEL as SOLE AGENTS.

Sublime Tuscany Olive Oil

SAMUEL RAE & CO, LEGHORN. This famous brand is guaranteed a PURE article every bottle and tin bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label.

Nelson's Improved Brilliant Gelatine

A superior and economical preparation for jellies, blanc mange, soups, gravies, &c. Jellies made with the greatest facility in a few minutes possessing the whole of the nutriment without the impurities of the calvesfeet. Each genuine packet bears the signature of GEORGE NELSON and our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt

This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.

Anglo Bavarian Ale

VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE. GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.

Champagne Cider,

HENLEY & SON'S celebrated brand. Each bottle bears the RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Tea.

We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are REFILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.

Attention.

Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

MONTEVIDEO.

The half-finished MacKinnon Custom House is the greatest eye-sore about Montevideo, suggesting, as it does, so many unpleasant reflections. The walls are all finished, and even the iron girders for the roof are up. A mere trifle could conclude it, yet it is probable that it will take another generation to put in the windows. That these deposits were really wanted for the trade there is no question, since the Custom House people are now sending the goods further up to other deposits, but it seems to be the fate of these and many other countries to begin public works on far too grand a scale, and thus leave to posterity their conclusion. There is a church in Montevideo near the Hotel Oriental, which we doubt if it will be finished in the next hundred years. A church, however, is not a Custom-house, and the ruined, delapidated, half-finished state of the new Custom deposits which first meet the eyes of the visitor on landing creates an impression akin to that of the Hole in the Mole in this city some years ago.

Buela's news-rooms were crowded. Mr. Buela has resumed the direction of this useful establishment, and one meets almost as many people at the Rooms as at the Bolsa. The nearest approach we have in Buenos Ayres to these rooms is the Club de los Estrangeros, but there is always a certain link between a reading-room and a newspaper which Buela holds, and which is convenient, as it is useful to the commercial public of Montevideo. Mr. Rom has tried to establish the same thing here, but with nothing of Buela's success; and indeed for the organization of such a concern in this city, premises, locality and administration would have more to do with its success than genius, talent or fine writing. The Hotel Oriental still holds its aristrocatic supremacy over all others in the line. The house, although not to say crowded, was tolerably full. Diplomacy claims the best rooms: Mr. E. Alvear, of Buenos Ayres; Mr. Owen Gahan, estanciero of Navarro; Mr. Gramasso and his pretty daughters, and many others from Buenos Ayres were stopping there for the bathing season. The tramways to the seashore have brought down the expenses of sea-bathing to a pleasant minimum. We have no longer the open carriages lining the street at 6 a.m. before the hotel door; all that extravagance is now done away with. Twelve cents carries you to the sea, and it is inexplicable how the wealthy people of Buenos Ayres avail so little of the splendid bathing conveniences which the Brighton of the Plate now so well and so cheaply supplies.

There are six English importing houses in Montevideo, at least so we were told by a merchant, and yet, small as the number, they do far less business than when there were fifty. The Italian trade shows far less growth than in Buenos Ayres, but the Germans and Americans have been the busiest all last year, and their trade, we hear, has been a safe and profitable one. Messrs. Callender's English tienda is a very fine establishment and, perhaps, larger than any English tienda in Buenos Ayres. Mr Evans's shipchandlery is the busiest quarter in the city: morning, noon and night the place is crowded; the trade in beef and vegetables etc. for the steamers is far more important than in Buenos Ayres, and it seemed to us far better organized. We have no doubt when the Boca becomes the real shipping port of Buenos Ayres that an establishment such as Evans's will be a necessity, but at present the business is so scattered amongst the Paseo Julio men that one needs but visit Montevideo to see the great difference between the trade here and there. Montevideo is without an English barraquero, spite of all the numerous English estancieros and sheepfarmers scattered over the Banda Oriental. Even the Jackson Barraca, which was, at least, English in name, has passed into the hands of Mr Sanchez.

In many things Montevideo is far more European than Buenos Ayres; many of the customs of the Canaries are stamped on the people and their shops. As a rule the Orientals prefer the Canaries as immigrants to the Italians, but the latter are far the hardest workers and best agriculturists. The Canaries, they say, just scrape the land, take off a crop or two, and then move to other lands; then come the Italians, who till and work the land and obtain better crops than the original tillers. The wheat crop this year of the Banda Oriental is, perhaps, the best they ever had, and agricultural farming is steadily increasing, but the people of Montevideo say with a sneer that nearly all the emigration goes to the Argentine Republic, the ratio being 100 for Montevideo for every thousand that goes up to Buenos Ayres. The great political excitement that amuses or annoys us in Buenos Ayres is unknown in Montevideo; people, they say, disappear when they become politically conspicuous or obnoxious, and at times the waves throw up on the rocks, near the fort, evidences that the papers take care not to publish. The Bolsa hours are early and convenient: at 2 o'clock the On 'Change business is over. In this the Montevideans hold a wondrous advantage over Buenos Ayres: merchants are enabled to finish their letters and retire to their homes before 5 o'clock; the result is that the Montevidean merchants have all a fresher and more 'plon-plon' appearance.

THE LAND LOAN

IMPORTANT DECREE

The following highly important decree will be read with pleasure by the large public interested in the Rio Negro lands. This decree meets a difficulty which has not only become the subject of complaint, but which, to a certain extent, has checked the subscription to the loan, the very basis of which is estancia land. So long as the investing public knew where the lands they bought were situated it was plain sailing enough; but when all the lands near Carhue and other known points were bought and taken up, and subsequent subscribers had to take their chance of getting their lands West of the Sun and East of the Andes, the interest the investing public took in the matter collapsed, and we are not surprised the Minister of Hacienda found it convenient to extend the various periods for subscription.

Dr. Plaza, by this decree, invites many foreign civil engineers and surveyors who are in the city to take to their pole and chain and thedolite, without any of those special 'tramites' which render all government employ so tedious. As we know of some who are qualified for the work, but who did not well know how to obtain it, we commend the decree to their reading. Through this edict we look for a speedy mapping out of the whole Rio Negro territory, and we compliment Dr. Plaza on the excellence of his new measure:—

Finance Office, Buenos Ayres, Jan. 14th, 1880.

Considering—That it is urgent to have the public lands which were sold under the laws of 5th and 16th of October, 1878, surveyed and marked out as soon as possible, so that the subscribers may receive their allotments.

2nd. That, although the system in use has given satisfactory results, when the cost, the areas surveyed, and the difficulties inherent to such operations in a desert during the frontier campaign are taken into account, yet it is expedient to adopt measures to shorten the time and reduce the cost as much as possible.

3rd. That, bearing in mind the proposals sent in by some firms and several engineers and surveyors, it appears desirable to change the system of maintaining official surveyors at a monthly salary for that of payment in a lump sum per league under special contract, with guarantee for its execution and the correctness of the survey:

The President of the Republic decrees—

Art. 1. The Engineers' Department is authorised to contract for surveys, on the conditions laid down in this decree, submitting the contracts to the approval of the Finance Minister.

Art. 2. No contract to be for less than 100 kilometrical square leagues, or more than 400. The prices per square league to be—

1. In the lands given by the Province of Corrientes 30 pats. per league.
2. In Buenos Ayres—
   1st. Thirty pats. per square league in the zone North of the parallel which passes through Fort Argentino, the 5th Meridian and the frontier line.
   2nd. Thirty-five pats. per league from this South to Rio Colorado.
   3rd. Forty pats. per league on the Rivers Colorado and Negro, the Fifth Meridian and the Atlantic.

The surveyors at present surveying any of the above lands are entitled to a preference.

Art. 3. Forty pats. fuertes will be paid per square league in the zone between the 5th meridian and that which passes 20 kilometrical leagues west of that meridian, parallel 35° and the Colorado River, with the obligation to define and mark, with the utmost possible precision, the fifth meridian and parallel 35°. The 'mojones' will be delivered by Government at Bahia Blanca, Fort Argentino, Carhue and Trenquelanquen.

Art. 4. Thirty-five pats. per square league will be paid in the zone beteen the 35th Parallel, the Rio Colorado and the meridians which pass 20 and 40 leagues from the Fifth Meridian.

Art. 5. 45 pats per league in the zone between the rivers Colorado, Negro, the Fifth Meridian and that which passes 40 leagues West of said Meridian.

Art. 6. The surveys must be made in accordance with instructions from the Engineers' Department, in conformity with the Land Laws, the surveyors to pay all expenses, except the 'mojones', for marking the Fifth Meridian and 35th Parallel, and also those incurred in dividing the lands into squares of 100 leagues superficial measurement.

Art. 7. A fourth part of the amount will be paid in advance when the contract is signed, and the rest according as the plans and measurement books are delivered.

Art. 8. The survey must be made within the contract time, which must not exceed one year.

Art. 9. The surveyor must bind himself to look after the 'mojones for one year after the survey is approved, and he must sign a declaration that he has made the survey according to his instructions, holding himself responsible for any damages any error of his may cause to Government or private parties.

Art. 10. A solvent person must be offered as guarantee for the due fulfilment of the contract, or a deposit of National Bonds equal to the sum advanced must be made.

Art. 11. The guarantee referred to may be cancelled one year after the approval of the survey, in case there is no claim, but the surveyor will always be responsible for any error on his part.

Art. 12. One per cent will be allowed for errors in the surveys.

A HARD CASE

In publishing the following letter, our chief object is to call the attention of the Board of Directors of the Western Railway to the justice of the complaint. It is really difficult to imagine a harder case than that which Mr. Devereux makes out; and from what we know of the gentlemen composing the Board of Directors of the Western Railway we feel certain that the claim of this poor man for the value of his clothes and his carpenter's tools will be at once liquidated. We call the attention of Dr. Rufino Elizalde, President of the Board, to the matter. The burning of the luggage waggon, even though accidental, was a matter with which the passengers had nothing whatever to do; and, as the value of our correspondent's baggage must be a mere bagatelle, it is to be hoped Dr. Elizalde will view the matter in a just and proper light and order the amount of his loss to be at once paid to him:—

Salto Argentino, Jan. 14th.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

I trust you will allow me through the Standard to bring to the notice of the Government the following facts:—

I arrived in Buenos Ayres on Dec. 12th and not succeeding in finding work at my trade, ship carpenter. I left by the mid-day train of the 17th for Chivilcoy with my family and luggage; for the latter I paid freight 150 m/c, as I, whether foolishly or not, brought a good stock of clothing, hearing it was so very dear here, bed, bedding, house utensils and also a splendid set of tools which cost me in Europe £15. You will imagine our surprise when on arriving at (Moron I believe) to see the luggage van in flames; on alighting from the train we rushed towards the car to see if anything could be saved, but owing to the flames we could not go near, and had to content ourselves with seeing all our little things consumed before our eyes.

On arriving in Chivilcoy without even a change of clothes for ourselves and infant, or able to get the least information, we were very happy in meeting a countryman, who very kindly took an inventory of what we lost and has presented it before the Board of Directors, but owing to the formation of a new one there is some delay, which to me is a great hardship.

I have not seen any remark in the Standard on the occurrence, although, the French paper called on the Directors to make good the losses caused by the negligence of their servants.

I am sure Mr. Editor, that you will agree with me, that claims of this nature are very different from claims for goods or &c, purchased in your city, for I have been paying freight, besides the trouble and care, since I left Ireland, and I am willing to go before a magistrate and make a declaration as to the justness of the claim &c.

When the business is wound up I shall let you know how it has been arranged.

I remain Dear Sir
Gratefully yours
Thomas Devereux.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Cabul is not very reassuring, The Scientific Frontier will prove a troublesome and expensive one for some time to come.

The Peruvian papers to hand show that Pierola and his friends had a stiff fight of it to get into power, but his authority seems now to be recognized all over Peru.

Madlle. Bianchi, the 'premiere danseuse' of last season at the Politeama, is engaged for the coming winter at the Colon Theatre. She is the best dancer ever seen in the Plate, and is decidedly good even in Europe. Mr. Ferrari ought to bring out a proper 'corps de ballet' to support her. The ballet has never yet been properly worked by Buenos Ayrean theatrical managers, although it would prove a mine of wealth.

Leading a pigeon about the streets with a silk cord, such as used to be the fashion with dogs 30 years ago, is the latest craze with the ladies of the Parisian 'beau monde.'

The Municipality has abandoned the atrocious system of throwing poisoned meat about the streets to thin the canine population. The latest order is that stray 'poor dog Trays' are to be lassoed and hauled off to a 'corral' for slaughter.

The Entre Rios police have just had the common sense to shoot down like a dog a well-known assassin who resisted arrest. The fellow had been murdering and robbing for years all over the province.

We feel much pleasure in saluting a new colleague which has nothing to do with politics—the Revista Militar y Naval. It is very nicely got up, and we have no doubt will succeed. The sudden fancy for the Navy which has sprung up lately amongst the 'jeunesse doree' of the country is attracting attention. All the schoolboys now rave of the navy and speak of entering it. We consider this a healthy sign. The mania for writing Doctor of Law after one's name is declining, and so much the better. We'd sooner be an Admiral, or even a post Captain, than the best lawyer that ever was born. The exploits of poor Grau have given the aspirations of Argentine youth this new turn.

Indians do not seem to be pleasant as servants. A lady well known in the city, when about going to bed some nights ago found, her Indian maid concealed under the bed with a carving knive in her dusky hand. There can be little doubt as to what her intentions were.

A leading resident of Lomas de Zamora requests us to ask the party who advertizes that he is about to open a school out there to give further particulars as soon as possible, as there are dozens of families in that place, with two or three boys each, who are anxious to hand the said youngsters over to some person competent to make their ideas shoot in the proper direction.

Gracious! Twenty new Doctors of Law will receive their diplomas next April—on the 1st, we suppose. Better enter the Navy. Many, too many, are called to the Bar, but few, precious few, are chosen by clients to hold briefs.

Several Fathers of the Salesian Order and some Sisters of Charity sailed on Thursday for Patagonia on a mission to the Indians of those regions. They are accompanied by and under the direction of Dr. Espinosa, the worthy Vicar General of this diocese. There was a service in the church of San Juan previous to embarking, and Archbishop Aneiros addressed a few words of eloquent farewell to them. Canon Zuñiga acts as Vicar Generalduring Dr. Espinosa's absence.

The health of Dr. Pellegrini, Minister of War, was drunk last night with 'three times three and one cheer more,' in every mess and barrack room in the country, owing to his order that the arrears of pay due to the army be at once discharged.

The French steamer Senegale made a splendid run out this time—18 days from Bordeaux to Rio, and 3½ from that port to Montevideo. The time is coming when the travelling public will not be satisfied even with this speed. We expect to go from the Outer Roads to Southampton in 15 days before we die.

The heat yesterday was stifling and sticky to an unpleasant degree. The Standard barometer went as far as it could towards 'Rain,' and can do no more. If it does not rain soon, it ought to.

We read in the Capital of Rosario that at the wheat colonies they have broken the back of the harvestd and are now preparing for Carnival. Also, that the tramway horses in Rosario would be much obliged to their owner if he would not keep them on starvation rations; they are bags of bones and hardly able to draw the cars at a walk. Poor brutes.

We have to thank Mrs Calzetto, of the Tigre, for a very kind present of some of the finest peaches, pears and apples we have seen. We can now defy the inconveniences of an empty cellar.

The Nacional published a bulletin yesterday with some West Coast news. It appears that President Daza was enticed to Arica and he and his followers disarmed there by Camacho, the new President; he wanted to go on board the American corvette Alaska, but was refused. Passengers say he is hidden in Arica. Another revolution at La Paz in favour of Oblitas is reported. In Lima a loan of two millions sterling by Dreytus is spoken of.

A grand banquet was given to General Roca in Cordova on Thursday. We hope some one of our friends there will send us as clear and impartial an account of the revel as we had from our Rosario correspondent about the banquet there. Our Argentine readers take the greatest interest in these political feeds.

The papers report a riot in Mercedes between some soldiers of two regiments of the Line, about politics. A corporal was shot and several privates were wounded.

The Patria Argentina reports that the Mercedes police found an Englishman dead in his rancho with two terrible wounds in the body. Two men have been arrested on suspicion of the crime. The name of the victim is not given.

To those of our subscribers who have business relations with South Africa, Cettewayo, Dunn and Co., the following may be of interest:—Messages can be despatched from Buenos Ayres at the following rates—Durbar, $6.25 pats. gold, per word. Other stations in Natal and Cape Colony, $ f.6.42 pats. per word.

We have been favoured with two boxes of Argentine cigarettes, made from the tobacco grown on Mr. Posse's chacra at Matanzas. The tobacco is of the Virginia and Turkish kinds, and in our opinion there are no better in the city: the Turkish kind especially is excellent. These cigarettes show what can be done in this line. If every estanciero had a few acres under tobacco, the sheep dips and cigarettes could be provided for in the very estancia houses. Mr. Posse's home-grown tobacco is incomparably superior to the stuff sent down from Paraguay or the Interior, and is more like the well-known Caporal. In the coming Exhibition, no doubt, all will have an opportunity of judging for themselves as to the merits of this tobacco.

We hear that the locusts have appeared in trillions in the neighbourhood of Tandil, with a larger appetite than ever.

Dr. Zeballos, the eminent explorer, has given the name of 'Sierra Gould' to a new chain of hills he discovered during his recent trip to the South. It is almost needless to add that Dr. Gould, the distinguished Director of the Cordoba Observatory, is the godfather of the new mountains.

The Italian papers report a tremendous sensation in Naples, owing to the Queen of the late Khedive's harem having eloped with an Italian painter. The odalisque took a lot of money and jewels with her.

We remark a great number of sudden deaths and suicides in the papers. An Italian cook in Calle Belgrano plunged a carving knife into his breast while in a fit of delirium tremens, and his little son, a child of 10 years, who was standing by, was nearly suffocated by the blood.

'Le Roi est mort. Vive le Roi.' The Combate is dead and the Heraldo de America is born. We are sorry to lose the former from the 'Bus, which can ill spare such an athlete of journalism as Mariano Varela. However, we also welcome the coming guest. The Heraldo's program is excellent—the National Constitution, peace, good will and unity between all the provinces of the Republic, and no more civil war or electioneering rows on any pretence whatever We neither know nor care whether the Heraldo wears politically a White or a Black hat (better wear no hat at all) but its programme is first rate, and we hope it will stick to it like a well-gummed postage stamp to an envelope.

The Prensa publishes some news from Bolivia sent to one of its subscribers by telegram from Tupiza. A fight at Chinchin is reported, Bolivians of course victorious.

The latest news from the Welsh Colony at Chubut is that the authorities there are in that state known as 'acefalia,' which means in plain English that there is no authority at all. The Sub-Delegate (first fiddle in the place) is in Buenos Ayres, confined to his bed; the Sub-Lieutenant is in exactly the same predicament, and the Ayudante, or Alcalde, the gentleman who is (according to the Porteño) 'idolized by the colonists', is safely locked up in jail down there till a man-of-war goes down to bring him here for trial. It is consoling to know, however, that the fact of two of their local rulers being in bed and the other in the lock-up does not seem to affect the Welshmen a bawbee; in fact, as was plainly stated in a correspondence from the colony which we published some months ago, the settlers got on far better and more harmoniously when they had no 'authorities' but themselves.

The fair sex in and about Dolores appear to be of an unusually vigorous temperament. The last case we had to report was of two young ladies there thrashing their mother and dancing on her prostrate body till she was nearly lifeless. We now hear of a damsel who knocked another senseless, tied her to a horse, and galloped across the camp with her till all her bones were broken. It appears there was a young gentleman in the case, and the green-eyed monster suggested this way of getting rid of a rival.

The news from Montevideo is that there are still some Spanish bulls left to the empresa of the Ring and they will be duly butchered on the 2nd prox., when the largest bullring audience ever seen in the Queen City is expected to assemble. There is no general news in the Mount papers; all old hash from Buenos Aires with a marriage, a murder, or a mauling match in the streets thrown in as spice.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, Dec. 20th.

Alexandre Dumas, according to his habit, ever puffs any new production from his pen, some time before it appears for the public; he objects to no amount of incense; it pays. He is rather late in the field with his work on Divorce.

Nothing can exceed the gush of the Spaniards towards France, for organising a fete to assist the unfortunate Murcians, and compelling sojourners to contribute to the relief fund, which ought to be respectable despite the enormous expense. There was a memorial journal brought out called 'Paris-Murcia,' a kind of Album, with autographs and contributions from celebrities. The old Louis XIV. saw, that the Pyrenees no longer exist, has been worked up in several forms: the Khedive sincerely pities the unfortunate 'inondés;' Hugo, of course, is Olympian; for him the best dam against an overflowing river is an 'augmentation of humanity.' The misfortune of Murcia has its rebound in Paris; the latter is 'the capital of the world, and a grief of the universe is a grief for Paris.' The sigh that rends thy constant heart shall break thy Edwin's too. One Spanish gentleman, a descendant of a Sergeant Hoff, states: "I have ever boasted to be the son of a father who shot thirty Frenchmen in the guerilla war; for the future I shall never allude to this process." That's the kind of Recording Angel the world wants, who will blot out accusations.

The material part of the fête was held at the Hippodrome, where every kind of Iberian high jinks was practised. The immense building was crowded, for there was in addition a lottery fund of some millions. Besides, Andalusia contributed some of her prettiest—where all are pretty—of señoras. About 12,000 persons were present, being one-sixth more than the building could contain, but the crush helped to keep up the officially guaranteed temperature. The Hippodrome is, in point of distance, considered as a Colonial possession; to reach it first catch your cab, presumed to be warm inside, while the driver freezes on the box; a two-horse vehicle is a necessity, as the second animal helps not to so much to pull the cab as the other horse; the drive is like the passage of the Israelites through the Red Sea, only instead of walls of water on each side they are of snow. On entering, the stewards directed you to five vestiaries at once, situated at the opposite cardinal points, so that the round of excursions was equal to a walking match. The arena had been converted into a card-board model of the town of Murcia in its happier days, and was worthy the talent of such architects and builders as Hoffman or Perrault; all was gaiety, flags, illuminations, lakes, flirtations. After a musical overture, an ugly rush towards the door was observed; people expected to hear the cry of fire, the crash of an avalanche, or an incursion of polar bears; it was worse; it was a simultaneous execution of an Hungarian march on fifteen pianos by thirty pair of hands.

Next came the defile, in brilliant costumes, of real Spanish soldiers and gendarmes, with their postscript of three ribbon be-decked mules. The most Spanish scene, however was French—the dancing by the opera ballet—and it was exquisite. The ladies, out of sympathy, patronized black veils and large hair-combs. One actress looked lovely in a long white veil, as she sold lemonade for one franc a glass out of a pitcher. The legislative omnibus box was occupied by the Embassy from Morocco; their costumes whiter than our snow, which at present is all black from smuts and dust. The Comtese de Paris, an Infanta by birth, was with her uncle, the Duc de Nemours; she wore a pretty iron grey, the new colour 'premier de chemin de fer,' with red and yellow roses in the corsage. The servants were—originally—distinguished by a red and yellow flower in the button-hole, but there was a tree in the garden of Murcia, covered with the same flowers, every gentleman plucked one and thus became de facto a steward realizing 'Figaro here, Figaro there, Figaro everywhere.' The Fancy Fair was brilliant; Sarah Bernhardt looked a trifle stouter in a white satin robe, as she sold castanets and fans; Mme. Judie was somnambulist—the first time she was caught napping in her life; she told your fortune—or did nothing—for 10 francs, and assured a member of the Cabinet he would remain Minister till—suspended. Mlle. Legrand sold camelias, Mlle. Granier white lilacs, and Mme. Theo the new doll called 'Nana'—after Zola's latest heroine, but warranted not to say a word that would make a nun blush or a boarding-school mistress depart in hysterics.

The cold continues to make itself felt at home; some editors discuss we have a north pole and others a south pole temperature, but what disgusts is, that Paris should be selected by the Clerk of the Weather to be afflicted with a temperature fit only for Esquimo. Milton relates that after the Fall, an angel was told to give the earth a kick, and so destroy its character of eternal spring; has another kick been given to plunge us into perpetual cold? The clergy will pray for rain or fine weather, but the Thirty-nine Articles make no provision for a supplication for elevated temperature. A Brahmin prayer-mill is offered for sale at the Hotel Druot; if there be a suffering Hindu in Paris, let him set it going to blood heat request, and he will merit a niche in the Pantheon from 'la patrie reconnaissante.' The city is gay though citizens have blue noses and blow incessantly the tips of their fingers; if ordinary work is checked, more time is left to send round the hat to relieve the thousands who exist as if the 24 degrees below freezing point were a Palais Royal joke. The soup kitchens are working day and night. Temporary shelter is provided for the houseless, and one feels more at ease after these duties have been discharged. The best aid to digestion is the pleasure derived from having alleviated a misery, irrespective of politics or religion.

The weakness in the gold market continues and the gold selling on 'Change is known to be exchange gold. The business for cash today was limited to 1,000 pats whilst 370,000 pats were sold for the end of the month at ten cents over the cash rate; had this gold been forced on the market for cash it would probably have put the cash price down at least ten cents, so weak is the market at present. Gold opened and closed at 31.70, and closed for Feb. at 31.85, which is a drop of 15 cents for that date within last few days.

Cedulas were much weaker than yesterday, opening at 82⅝, and closing at 82½, for the end of March at 82. Treasury Notes active and firm at 76⅝. Roads and Bridges show an advance of ½ and were done at 76. Buschental Bonds no sales, holders ask 90, perhaps at 88 business might be done. Old National Bonds, several small lots, sold at 84½.

Exchange was done to-day for the La France mails at 5.24 Paris, about 250,000 fcs. and, £3,000 at 40⅜.

The sale of 3,000 potro hides from Luro's reported at 21-22 rls per 35 lbs.

Wool ruled very firm this morning; the wool from Mr Edw. Culligan's estancia, Capilla del Señor, sold to-day at 1'8 per ar.

The advices per Smeaton report all business had been temporarily stopped, owing to the excessive cold weather; the railway companies refused to receive goods. The Bank of France suffered a further withdrawal of gold of 6½ millions francs in the week ending 13th December, and the Phillipart business had caused the attachment of nearly 14 millions francs, funds belonging to the Banque Europeene, at the credit Lyonnais and other banks, a most serious affair.

Mr. Dillon's letter to the Minister informing him of there being fifty Austrian families at the Asilo, and no colony or place to send them to, is rather unwelcome news, and shows that the immigrants are arriving too fast for our Immigration Department. This is the first time since Mr. John Dillon took charge of the Department that we find it at fault to place the emigrant. The matter is one of the most serious importance when we take into account the thousands of families at the moment on the way out, and some explanation is called for. Why does not Mr. Dillon apply to Governor Tejedor to start a few more wheat colonies in this province such, as Olavarria?

The London papers received by French mail publish the traffic earnings of some of our railways, and we notice that the Eastern-Argentine shows for the 11 months ending Nov. 1879 an increase of £6000 on the previous year, and the Central Argentine for same period an increase of £16,000.

Advices received to-day from Australia report that in certain districts the farmers were shearing in the grease, and the wool would be shipped as dirty wool. This may interest wool buyers. The losses of sheep in Australia last year have been unusually severe, and many farmers are giving up sheepfarming and taking to cattle.

The National Government has extended the time for subscribing to the Rio Negro Loan for another two months. Many parties may be glad to hear this, as we know some who wish to buy lands down there.

The gunboat Vermejo, on arriving at Rosario, reported a schooner a few miles below San Pedro foundered in the river.

Gradually we receive further details of last Saturday night's storm, perhaps the greatest known in the Plate for last fifty years. At Paysandu and Colonia great damage was done. Mr Caraballo, the Juez de Paz of San Jose de Flores, who lives in front of Lumbaré, had all his out-offices blown down; it will cost over 12,000 m|c. to repair the damage. The lightning struck the National College, Rosario. On board the Villa del Salto the lightning lit up the whole saloon, and many feared that it would strike the ship.

The Senegal has brought in gold £1880 stg. to Messrs Portalis Freres.

Mr H L Green's report gives an invaluable comparative export table which we commend to the attention of merchants. We note that already more than half the wool clip is gone, 102,338 bales, and it must be remembered that this season much wool has been shipped from the rivers. Our wool trade is in advance of what it was this time last year. The season has proved very brisk, not only in exports but in imports, as we hear of an English house that made a sale yesterday of 2691 packages of goods, all for the Interior. This shows what is going on.

Mr Casares has sold the little steamer Rivadavia for f0,200 fts.

On next Monday the meeting of shareholders of the National Bank will be held. There is much interest betrayed in the matter, and in the election of the new board.

Mr Cibils cleared yesterday the Mercedes with a cargo of 14,095 dry hides, 59 potro, 87 calf, and 3 pipes tallow; and Mr Rigal cleared a cargo of beef to Cuba. They say on 'Change that the largest profits made in this market last year were made in beef, and by a well known Spanish firm.

At 2 o'clock the Nacional flooded the Bolsa with bulletins, West Coast news and a new Peruvian loan of two millions sterling. We hold a letter from Valparaiso, received by Liguria, worth all this fudge, and shall publish it to-morrow. Merchants may regard the West Coast war as good as over, and as for the two million loan, not even M. Phillipart could negotiate it.

Sr Balmaceda's temperate and well-written note to his government, explaining his negotiations on the Chilian-Argentine question, was given round to-day in a neatly printed pamphlet from the Nacion Office. We look for further notes from Mr Balmaceda giving impressions of B. Ayres, as we understand he purposes publishing same. Whilst in Buenos Ayres Mr Balmaceda visited everything and took copious notes: he walked all through the sewers and over the Boca. The Chilian Question has ceased to affect the gold market.

20,000 for end of month, 31.75

Market closed sellers 31.70, buyers 31.65.

Freights rule very firm, and all the agents of steamers busy; large engagements to-day at current rates.

Exchange ruled active: it was generally said that the National Government between to-day and yesterday took £55,000, bills were passed in paper at 39½, about 500,000 francs done at 5.24-25 Paris and Antwerp, and 100,000 francs Paris best French paper 5.25.

Hides—1,000 Concordia at 50 rls.

The American barque Belle Prescott has arrived with a Cape Cottage cargo of pine to Boan & Co. from Portland, 60 days out. The ice at Portland was 3 feet thick when she left yet the vessel has been put in quarantine. This matter was much spoken of on 'Change, and people asked where is the American Minister or Consul, or a copy of Goldsmith's geography?

At the Provincial Bank to-day very large 'pelidos' and only 5 millions granted; paper money getting scarce.

The Custom House receipts to-day were 50,943 pats.

The Lamport and Holt s.s. Delambre entered Montevideo to-day, her mail will come up to-night.

The North German Lloyd s.s. Hohenstauffen entered Montevideo to-day from Bordeaux, bringing 80 passengers and 1500 tons cargo; yesterday there was some talk on Change of this steamer having been shut up by the ice in the Scheldt.

Respecting the sale we reported the other day of 75 sq. leagues of land in the partido of Lincoln, sold by Sr Brizuela, and bought by Mr Anchorena, we learn from the best source that the land has not been sold, and the report is an error.

The schooner Sociedad, that sunk in the Boca yesterday, was not run into by the s.s. Buenos Aires but ran against the mole, and made a hole in her side and sunk in 5 minutes; men in the water and all the chairs for the Ayacucho Railway in the river. Capt. Stewart, commander of the steamer Port of B. Aires, had his steamer standing astern as the three schooners passed.

Another foreign vessel entered the Boca to-day, a Nova-Scotian schooner.

Mr Gustavo Aimard, a destinguished French litterateur, was welcomed on 'Change.

The holders of Municipal Bonds, 1876, complain that now 2 coupons are unpaid; surely Mr Balbin must be unaware of this, as it is most damaging to the credit of the city and Province.

As many merchants are in the habit of using embossed stamped envelopes and posting same either at the agent's of the steamer, or in the bag on board, which custom Mr Olivera, the Post Master General, has allowed, the following letter from the London Post Office is most important, as it explains that letters so sent are subject to a heavier postage and even to a fine, and merchants will take note that henceforward all letters posted had better be sent through the Argentine Post Office, to avoid the risk which the following letter explains:—

"General Post Office, 15th Dec., 1879.

"Gentlemen,

"With reference to your letter of the 1st instant, I have to inform you, that, as the letters, of which you enclosed the covers, have not passed through the Buenos Aires Post Office, the embossed stamps on the covers were not available for the prepayment of the postage. They appear to have been received with the loose letters posted on board the Packet, and have been correctly charged the rate to which such letters are liable.

"I am, Gentlemen,

"Your obedient servant,

"JOHN TILLEY,

"Secretary."

Respecting Argentine cotton, in our remarks yesterday we made a slight error; the paper we received and which we now publish not being an account sales but a valuation made by a leading Liverpool firm. The following is the paper referred to:—

"Extract of letter from Liverpool, dated July 28th, 1879, received Sept. 1st, 1879—

"We have carefully examined the four cotton samples you left with us and have numbered them 1 to 4. Nos. 1 and 4 are of the styles of Egyptian cotton, and we consider No. 1 worth about 6¾d, and No. 4 quite 8d. Nos. 2 and 4 are very much alike and are of the style of Bastard Sea Islands.

"In the seed as they are now they are worth 3d; cleaned they should bring about 9d per lb.

"We return the samples.

One Valuation.	Another Valuation.
No. 1 6¼d-6¾d	No. 1 about 6¼d
No. 4 6¾d-7d	No. 4 quite 8d
No. 2 & 3 2½d uncleaned	No. 2 & 3 3d uncleaned, about 9d cleaned.

The export of wool since the commencement of the season reaches 78,138 bales, and there are engaged for vessels loading 24,250 bales making a total of 102,388 against 97,865 to same date last year. 70,111 salted ox hides have left and 29,000 are loading, making a total of 99,111 shipped and shipping against 66,540 last season; nearly all the wet hides of this province are going by steamer.

The rate on bales by steamer continued steady at 40s until the last week in December when it fell to 37s, and on the increased duties taking effect it further dropped to 30s, which is the rate of to-day. The rate on salted hides by steamer is 40s. The rate on bales by sailing vessels continues steady at 45s.

During the month the demand for sailing vessels has been considerable; 20 vessels have been put on the berth to load for Europe and the States; and 30 charters have been effected, notwithstanding which, rates have not advanced, the disengaged tonnage having been much in excess of requirements.

Four vessels have been fixed to load salted hides in the rivers against one last season; the rate has kept steady at 32s 6d for the Channel for orders. There is some demand for vessels for the West Coast, and 3 vessels have been chartered for nitrate and grain 50s for U. Kingdom and 55s for the Continent.

There are 55 vessels disengaged with 23,689 registered tons.
